

Chamberlain Group Named “Overall Consumer IoT Platform of the Year” in 2025 IoT Breakthrough Awards

The Annual Program Recognizes Standout Internet-of-Things Companies and Products

Oak Brook, IL, January 8, 2025 – Chamberlain Group (CG), a Blackstone portfolio company and a global leader in intelligent access and monitoring solutions, today announced it has been selected as winner of the “Overall Consumer IoT Platform of the Year” award in the 9th annual IoT Breakthrough Awards. The program is conducted by IoT Breakthrough, a leading market intelligence organization that recognizes the top companies, technologies and products in the global Internet-of-Things (IoT) market today.

The mission of the IoT Breakthrough Awards program is to conduct the industry’s most comprehensive analysis of the global Internet-of-Things industry and then recognize the ‘breakthrough’ innovators, leaders and visionaries in a broad range of IoT categories, including Connected Home and Home Automation, Industrial and Enterprise IoT, Smart City technology, IoT Security, Connected Car and many more. This year’s program attracted thousands of nominations from companies all over the world.

“Chamberlain Group is reshaping how access solutions are perceived and used across the globe. More than almost any type of security, people want to know what’s going on at home, especially while they’re away. From letting in dog walkers or repairmen, being assured that the kids got home safely, monitoring garage entry offers incredible peace of mind,” said Steve Johansson, managing director at IoT Breakthrough. “Chamberlain Group’s expansive brand ecosystem, equipped with cutting-edge, software-driven access solutions, is helping meet the future demands of IoT consumers confidently. Congratulations on winning the ‘Overall Consumer IoT Platform of the Year’ award!”

The achievement underscores CG’s ongoing commitment to empower the evolving IoT landscape throughout the company’s history, designing and manufacturing products for homes, businesses, and vehicles that prioritize user control, connectivity, and predictive functionality. CG is recognized not only for its intelligent access solutions, but also as a software-driven industry leader. With a diverse portfolio spanning residential, commercial, enterprise, and automotive sectors its technologies extend across a wide range of applications to support millions of users, homes, and businesses worldwide daily.

“We’re honored to be the recipients of the ‘Consumer IoT Platform of the Year’ award in the IoT Breakthrough Awards program,” said Jeff Meredith, Chamberlain Group CEO. “This is a testament to the CG team’s relentless hard work, outstanding creativity, and dedication to innovation. Chamberlain Group is enhancing the lives of our customers by providing all-in-one access and monitoring solutions that ensure safety and convenience for homeowners, community residents, and businesses alike. This recognition validates that we’re on the right track, and we’re committed to continuing to lead the intelligent access market with innovative new solutions in the IoT space.”
